

REPORT ON A ONE DAY CITIZENS DIALOGUE ON GOMBE STATE 2022 BUDGET
CONDUCTED BY MINISTRY OF FINANCE IN COLLABORATION WITH BUDGET, PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT PARTNER COORDINATION OFFICE ON THURSDAY, 04TH NOVEMBER, 2021 AT THE COLLEGE OF NURSING AND MIDWIFERY HALL GOMBE, GOMBE STATE.

The Citizen engagement is a forum where representatives of the general Public and non-governmental organization, such as civil society organization, peoples living with Disabilities, Women and Youth organization, Religious and Traditional rulers, Social media groups etc. converge with other stakeholders to discuss about the programmes/projects as well as activities that need to be reflected in the annual budget which will represent the interest of the general public.

The Budget Dialogue was meant to adhere the following:

- a. Create platform to educate and enlighten the general public on the process and procedures of budgeting.
- b. Give citizens the opportunity to participate in budget preparation, governance and make inputs into 2022 Annual Budget.
- c. To ensure that when the 2022 budget is passed by the State House of Assembly and assented to by the Executive Governor, it can be said to be owned by the citizens of the state as a Peoples' Budget.

The 2022 Citizens Dialogue:

The 2022 citizen dialogue took place on Thursday 04 November, 2021 at the college of Nursing and midwifery Hall, Gombe. It was organized by the Ministry of Finance (MoF) in collaboration with the Budget, planning and Development Partner Coordination office (BP&DPCO).

In Gombe State, the citizens' engagement dialogue with respect to budget preparation process started in 2019 where inputs from citizens continue to form part of the annual budget. The feedback received by the Budget, planning and Development Partner Coordination Office on the conduct of the dialogue was that the general public was impressed with their involvement in the State budget preparation process.

Welcome Remarks:

In his welcome remarks, the special adviser on the budget, planning and Development Partners coordination office, Dr. Ishiyaku Musa Mohammed, thanked the Executive Governor for taking time from his busy schedules to attend the consultation meeting. He also welcomed all guests including representatives of the Civil Society, Royal fathers, Traditional and Religious leaders, Businessmen, Businesswomen and youth groups while wishing all a memorable and fruitful dialogue meeting.

THE SPECIAL ADVISER MAKING HIS WELCOME ADDRESS

Goodwill Messages:

First to deliver goodwill message is the Honorable Commissioner Ministry of Finance and Economic Development, Mal. Muhammadu Gambo Magaji, stressed that in compliance with the provision of the 1999 Constitution as amended, Section 121 sub-section 1 & 2, confers on the Governor the responsibility to prepare and submit to the Honourable House of Assembly at any time before the beginning of each Financial Year, an appropriation bill, which contains details of expected revenue and expenditure for the coming year.

HON. COMMISSIONER OF FINANCE MAKING HIS SPEECH

This provision is talking about the preparation of Annual Budgets. As a new norm, it is expected that the citizens should actively participate and be involved in budget processes which has become a global best practice. He said that Budgets are tools that the government employs to drive economic policies aimed at uplifting the living standards of the society by mitigating disparity, providing infrastructure, Education, Health and Housing facilities. He therefore assures the participants that Gombe State government will give priority attention to the inputs made in this meeting with a view to ensuring that what people want is in the 2022 budget.

HON. BABA MANU DELIVERING HIS GOODWILL MESSAGE

In this message, the Chairman House Committee on Appropriation of the Gombe State House of Assembly, Honourable Aliyu Baba Manu noted that the process is in line with global best practice to increase government openness through Citizens Engagement for the purpose of generating more ideas and providing a platform for citizens to be part of annual budget process where communities have the opportunity to suggest their project needs for inclusion in the budget.

RT. HON. SPEAKER, MAKING HIS GOODWILL MESSAGE

In the same vein, The Speaker, Gombe State House of Assembly Rt. Hon. Muhammad Abubakar Luggerewo expressed that he is delighted to be given the opportunity to speak during this all important consultative meeting on the 2022 budget where the representation of the general public and non-governmental organizations and key stakeholders meet to discuss issues that need to be reflected in the 2022 budget of the state. He therefore urged all to participate actively and contribute meaningfully towards achieving our collective desire of moving the State forward. He also gave the assurance that all the inputs forwarded by the citizens will be looked into and captured to produce a people centered budget aimed at addressing the yearnings of the citizens.

He urged all participants to feel free to participate and contribute to moving Gombe state to greater heights.

Opening Remarks

HIS EXCELLENCY, GOVERNOR MUHAMMADU INUWA YAHAYA, DELIVERING HIS OPENNING REMARKS

The Executive Governor, Alhaji Muhammadu Inuwa Yahaya started by welcoming all participants to yet another consultative meeting on the preparation of 2022 Budget. He stated that citizens' engagement is a forum where representatives of the general public, non-governmental organization (NGOs), traditional/religious leaders, women/youths groups, etc comes together with others stakeholders to discuss about projects that need to be included in the State annual budget which will represent the interest of the general public. He expressed his happiness with the turn out which clearly buttressed the interest and seriousness exhibited by the citizens to be part of the moving train that is working to transform Gombe State to be first among its peers. He assured the participants that his administration is ever ready to accept the views of the public and execute people oriented projects. He promised to keep the tempo going by providing necessary platforms for citizens to express their views on government projects and programmes aimed enhancing their living conditions.

He stressed the need for the participants to pay adequate attention to all issues being discussed and to freely participate and contribute towards moving the state forward.

While declaring the meeting open, the Governor wished for a fruitful deliberation and prayed God to return all participants safely to their various destinations.
